INSTRUCTIONS

- The POD must be placed in the assigned, lettered parking space of the unit owner ONLY.
- The POD cannot exceed the length or width of one parking space.
- The POD must be placed on plywood or wooden planks.
- The dates of use cannot exceed a 7-day period. A daily fine in an amount of $ 100.00 will be imposed for each day the POD remains on the property, if it exceeds the 7-day period. If the need arises for the POD to be on the property longer than 7 days, a written request must be submitted to the Board for consideration prior to the end of the initial 7 day period. The Board reserves the right to deny this request.
- The unit owner is responsible to request a certificate of liability insurance and proof of worker's compensation insurance prior to the placement of the container and must accompany this application. The certificate must list Waverly Estate Condominium Association Inc. as additional insured and be made out as follows:
Waverly Estate Condominium Assoc., Inc.
PO Box 893
Conway, SC 29528-0893.
- While the POD is on the property, the unit owner must use an unlettered space for parking their personal vehicle. Parking in the street is prohibited.
- The undersigned agrees to assume the cost to repair any damage incurred to any common elements, as described in the governing documents of the Association or any personal property belonging to another resident of Waverly Estates in addition to any public utility lines and public water lines. The undersigned further agrees and understands that if, at any time, the placement of the POD becomes a safety hazard, the Board of Managers reserves the right to revoke permission of this application with a 24 hour notice.
